

CHOICE MATRIX: FUTURE EU-UK COLLABORATION ON INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

ecdpm

Concept: Andrew Sherriff and Emmanuel De Groof

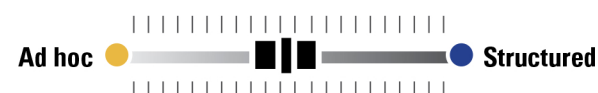

Graphic Design: Yaseena Chiu-van't Hoff

POLICY ALIGNMENT

EU/UK policies can be more or less aligned at any given geographic level/in any given area

METHOD

Methods of collaboration can be more or less structured at any given geographic level/in any given area

Choice matrix continues...

(A)
GLOBAL

(B)
CAPITAL TO CAPITAL

(C)
REGIONS

(D)
IN-COUNTRY
LEVEL

(3)
PERSONNEL
AND SKILLS

Consultation or exchange between development and humanitarian policy experts.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

Consultation or exchange between HQ development and humanitarian policy experts.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

Consultation or exchange development and humanitarian policy experts.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

Consultation or exchange between in-country development and humanitarian policy experts.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

(4)
MONEY FLOWS

Joint support for UN/World Bank/ Global initiatives/ programmes.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

Joint financing through off EU budget funds, or on budget op-in mechanism.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

Joint financing for specific regional initiatives (including EU trust funds).

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

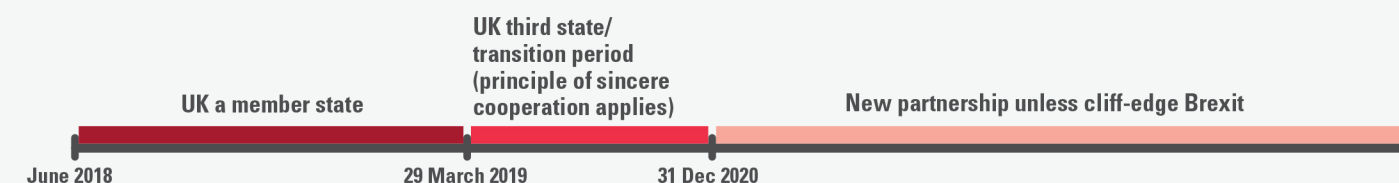

In country joint flagship programmes.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

Thematic collaboration

Thematic issues e.g. migration, humanitarian aid, defence, peace and stability could appear at every level within the matrix. Thematic collaboration can occur at any given geographic level/in any given area.

TIMELINE

Policy alignment, method or thematic collaboration can differ according to timing.

(1)
FORMS OF DECISION-
MAKING/FORA

The UK will shift its attention to bolster its engagement in global decision-making fora.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

The UK will partially shift its attention to bilateral cooperation schemes including with EU countries. Proliferation of bilateral summits, e.g. the FR-UK summit in January 2018.

EU-UK Special Framework for collaboration.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

UK participation in signing onto policy frameworks as an associate member (e.g. EU-Africa or post-Cotonou?).

The UK as an observer to EU coordination meetings; e.g. EU coordination before the African Union Partners' Group (AUPG).

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

Collaboration between UK and EU Heads of Mission (HoM)/Heads of Cooperation (HoC).

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

(2)
PROGRAMMES
AND POLICY
INITIATIVES

UK & EU continue to share policies: SDGs, Paris Climate Change Agenda, Consensus for Development.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

The UK will shift its attention to bilateral policy initiatives, also at the operational level.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

Joint programmes & policy initiatives in relation to (other) regions.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely

Joint programmes & policy initiatives in specific countries, e.g. collaboration between HoM/HoC.

- Very unlikely
- Unlikely
- Likely
- Very likely